COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY OPTIONS

With so many colleges and universities out there, it's important to find the one that fits your personality, educational preferences, career goals and personal criteria. When considering a Georgia college or university, you might ask yourself questions like:

- Is a technical or four-year college the best fit for me?
- Do I want a campus in the heart of the city, or is a small town more my speed?
- Am I seeking a research-focused institution or a more broad education?

Luckily, there are lots of great options to choose from in the state of Georgia! Take a look at the list of colleges and universities on the opposite page to start your search. Note that these colleges are eligible for state aid programs. You can also use our interactive webpages to find the best college for you by visiting GAfutures.org/college-planning/college-search. Search by location, size, type and more to help you narrow down your top choices. You can also search by the schools in Georgia specifically eligible for GSFC-administered financial aid programs.

Review the application process. Each school may have different deadlines and require additional applications. Be sure to set calendar reminders in advance of when applications are due.

02

Decide if you are going to apply for Early Decision or Early Action Admissions. Most of these applications are due between October 1 and November 1; you'll want to mark these deadlines as well.

03

Budget and plan for application fees. Check with your desired college to see if they give application fee waivers during the month of November to coincide with Apply to College month.

04

Provide teachers, school administrators, counselors and mentors any recommendation forms as early as possible. Be sure to provide mailing instructions, and make sure your portions of the forms are filled out completely and accurately.

05

Draft your college essay(s) and have your parent, teacher, counselor, colleague or other trusted peer review and provide feedback. You will probably go through several rounds of edits to make sure it's the best it can be.

06

Make sure you stay on top of deadlines and all the necessary paperwork is sent to your top choices. This includes official transcript(s), official test scores, letter(s) of recommendation and all financial aid applications. (Reminder, for most high schools, you can sign in to your GAfutures account and send your transcript to HOPE-eligible colleges in Georgia.)

07

After applying to a college, contact the admissions office to confirm your information has been received and they have everything they need from you.

CAREERS IN STRATEGICALLY IMPORTANT INDUSTRIES IN GEORGIA

In the thriving and growing state of Georgia, there are career opportunities in a variety of fields around every corner – some of which include underserved, growing or emerging industries. GSFC offers financial aid programs for individuals looking to join the workforce in these areas, providing Georgians an opportunity to step into roles that are at the forefront of the state’s developing business and economic landscape.

HOPE Career Grant

The HOPE Career Grant is available to HOPE Grant-qualified students who enroll in select majors specifically aligned with industries in which there are more jobs available in Georgia than there are skilled workers to fill them. These industries have been identified as strategically important to the state’s economic growth. Eligible HOPE Grant institutions include all TCSG colleges, Atlanta Metropolitan State College, Columbus State University, Dalton State College and Middle Georgia State University. See pages eight and nine for tuition-free certificate or diploma programs available at TCSG colleges; look for programs marked with an asterisk (*).

OPPORTUNITIES FOR MILITARY SERVICE

Serving your country is one of the greatest ways to give back to your nation. GSFC offers financial aid programs for individuals interested in serving in the Georgia Army National Guard or other branch of the military. Continue reading below if this is an option you'd like to explore, and visit GAfutures.org to review detailed eligibility requirements and award amounts.

The Georgia HERO Scholarship Program

The Georgia HERO (Helping Educate Reservists and their Offspring) Scholarship Program was created to provide financial aid to qualifying Georgia National Guard or United States Military Reservists, their spouses, and dependent children who seek a postsecondary education.

Georgia Military College (GMC) State Service Scholarship Loan

The Georgia Military College (GMC) State Service Scholarship Program was created to provide outstanding students with a full two-year scholarship program, thereby strengthening Georgia's Army National Guard with their membership.

For this service cancelable loan to be forgiven, recipients agree to serve in the Georgia Army National Guard for four years to complete service repayment (two years while attending GMC and two years after graduation).

Georgia National Guard (GNG) Service Cancelable Loan (SCL)

The Georgia National Guard (GNG) Service Cancelable Loan (SCL) was established as an incentive for qualified men and women to join the Georgia Army National Guard and to retain skilled, productive citizens within the state. It is a student financial aid program that provides loans to be used toward the cost of tuition in an undergraduate or graduate program at an eligible postsecondary institution.

Recipients agree to serve in the Georgia Army National Guard for two years following the last term of enrollment for which the student received GNG SCL funds.

University of North Georgia Military Scholarship Program

The University of North Georgia (UNG) Military Scholarship Program is a service cancelable program that provides full scholarships to enable outstanding Georgia students interested in pursuing a military career to attend the University of North Georgia, one of the nation's most prestigious senior military colleges.

Recipients agree to enlist in the Georgia Army National Guard, participate in the Corps of Cadets at the University of North Georgia while serving as soldiers in the National Guard, earn a bachelor's degree and become part-time officers – second lieutenants – in the Georgia Army National Guard in one of 18 career fields.

University of North Georgia ROTC Grant and ROTC Grant for Future Officers

The University of North Georgia (UNG) ROTC Grant and ROTC Grant for Future Officers provide assistance to Georgia residents seeking undergraduate degrees and participating in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps as full-time students at UNG.

Georgia residents in good standing with the Corps of Cadets will receive the University of North Georgia ROTC Grant each semester. Military service is not required. Recipients who choose to become an Army officer, and sign an agreement to do so, will receive a more substantial ROTC Grant for Future Officers.

What is a service cancelable loan?
A service cancelable loan is a loan awarded to the recipient in exchange for their service in a particular field (in this case, the military). If the service requirement is not met, the loan must be repaid in full.

The United States Armed Forces offers additional education benefits for service members and their dependents. Visit

FINANCIAL AID AT A GLANCE

Financial aid is defined as any money used to help pay for college – that includes two- or four-year universities, technical colleges or career schools. Financial aid can cover tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies, transportation and other college-related expenses.

Financial aid comes in different forms and types...

...and from a number of different sources:

Many of these types of financial aid will be explained in this guide.
Keep reading to learn more!

SMART TALK (DON'T GET SCAMMED!)

Don't fall for misleading offers about paying an organization to help you complete the FAFSA (or any scholarship applications), determine your repayment options or service your plan, or search for scholarships or other financial aid.

Be very leery if you start hearing any of these hooks, and be aware of the truth:

The "Bait"	The Truth
"We'll do all the work."	You must apply yourself.
"The scholarship is guaranteed or your money back."	No one can guarantee you will receive a scholarship.
"I just need your credit card or bank account number to hold this scholarship."	You should never be required to provide this information to legitimate providers.
"This scholarship will cost some money."	You should never pay a fee for someone to give you free money for college.
"You can't get this information anywhere else."	You have access to the same information about financial aid options that they would.
You've been told you've been selected as a finalist for a scholarship you have never applied for.	If you didn't apply for it, you can't get it.

More Tips to Protect Yourself from Scammers

- Never give out personal information to strangers.
- Get everything in writing before responding.
- If you are unfamiliar with the organization, ask how they got your information.
- Do not be pressured into signing anything or paying fees immediately.
- Keep good records of any correspondence you have with any company that approaches you regarding scholarship opportunities or loan repayment services.
- Report it! Visit fraud.org to submit an online form or call 202-835-3323.

FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID PROGRAMS

The federal government offers financial aid programs which include grants and work-study awards that do not need to be repaid, as well as various loans that do require repayment. Review the basic eligibility requirements and various federal financial aid programs below. For detailed information and annual award amounts, visit studentaid.gov.

Basic Eligibility Requirements

In order to determine eligibility for federal and some state financial aid programs, students must:

- Demonstrate financial need or exhibit academic merit, depending on the type of financial aid.
- Have a high school diploma, General Education Development (GED) diploma or High School Equivalency (HSE) diploma.
- Be enrolled in, or accepted to, an institution participating in federal financial aid programs.
- Be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident or eligible non-citizen.
- Have a valid social security number.
- maintain satisfactory academic progress
- Not be in default or owe a refund on any federal or state student grant or federal or state student loan.

Program	Type of Aid	General Eligibility/Requirements
Pell Grant	Grant	Undergraduate student with financial need.
Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant	Grant	Undergraduate student with exceptional financial need. Federal Pell Grant recipients receive priority.
TEACH Grant	Grant	Undergraduate, post-baccalaureate or graduate student enrolled in coursework necessary to begin a career in teaching. Must agree to serve as a full-time teacher in a high-need field in a public or private elementary or secondary school that serves low-income students.
Federal Work-study	Work-study	Full-time or part-time undergraduate or graduate student.
Direct Stafford Loan	Loan	Undergraduate, graduate or professional student enrolled at least half time.
Direct PLUS Loan	Loan	Graduate student or parent of dependent undergraduate student enrolled at least half time. Credit approval required.

Repayment Options for Federal Aid Loans

If you receive loans from the federal government to help pay for your education, it's good to start looking ahead to know your repayment options ahead of time so you can plan your personal finances accordingly. Below is a basic list of the various types of repayment plans available – all of these differ in:

- Eligible Borrower (Who is borrowing the funds)
- Monthly Payment and Time Frame (How and When the funds are begin repaid)
- Eligible Loans (Which loans are included in the repayment)

Types of Repayment Plans - to make your payments more affordable, the various repayment plans can give you more time to repay your loans or can be based on your income.

Basic Repayment Plans

- Standard
- Graduated
- Extended Income-Contingent (ICR)

Income-Driven Repayment Plans

- Saving on a Valuable Education (SAVE)
this plan is fully replacing the REPAYE program as of 2024.*
- Pay as you Earn (PAYE)
- Income-Based (IBR)
- Income-Contingent (ICR)

GAfutures SCHOLARSHIP SEARCH

There are thousands of scholarships out there to help students pay for college – you just have to be willing to spend the time doing your research and putting together strong scholarship applications. The more time you invest in your search, the more you increase your chances of receiving a scholarship award.

Check out these helpful scholarship search tips:

- Start your search early. Many scholarships have an application process and competition can be tough.
- Don't stop at one, two or three scholarship applications. You increase your chances of receiving money for college by applying for multiple scholarships. Plus, smaller scholarships add up when it comes to paying for college.
- Be creative! Consider your family, lineage or culture, hobbies, career interests, medical history or your college major. You might even find scholarships with surprising eligibility requirements, such as being vegetarian, lefthanded or a comic book fan.
- Seek various places and resources for scholarships. Options may include your high school or postsecondary institution of choice, or free websites and tools such as our GAfutures scholarship search or Fastweb. Check with your employer to see if they offer educational or tuition benefits that you may be eligible for! If you're not working yet, consider applying for jobs where you can earn scholarships for college.
- Look for scholarships even after you're in college. Some schools have institution or program-specific scholarships for current students.
- Do not pay anyone to help you find or apply for scholarships! (More information on scams on page 19.)

Look for local and national scholarships with our search tool to find additional sources of financial aid. Visit GAfutures.org/scholarship-search to begin your search!

The screenshot shows the GAfutures Scholarship Search website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the GAfutures logo and the tagline "Explore. Plan. Succeed." followed by several menu items: Home, HOPE & State Aid Programs, Federal Aid & Scholarships, College Planning, Career Exploration, Resources, About Us, and My GAfutures. Below the navigation bar is a dark blue header with the text "Scholarship Search". Underneath the header, there is a search bar with the placeholder text "Search by keyword." and a magnifying glass icon. To the right of the search bar, there is a note: "Use the filter options located in the left menu to search." Below the search bar, there is a left-hand menu with several categories: Personal Information, Academic Information, and Miscellaneous/Affiliation. Below these categories are four buttons: "Search All", "Saved Scholarships", and "Clear All Selections". To the right of the menu, there is a large image of a hand holding a magnifying glass over a stack of money, with the word "SCHOLARSHIP" written on a tag. Below the image, there is a text overlay that reads: "Looking for money to help pay for college?" and a small arrow pointing to the left with the text "Choose the categories on the left to help find potential opportunities".

EARN COLLEGE CREDITS WITH DUAL ENROLLMENT

Dual Enrollment allows high school students (10th-12th grade) to earn college credits while working on their high school diploma. If you think you're up to the challenge, there are some great benefits to taking college-level classes, including getting a taste of the college experience for an easier transition, taking classes that may not be offered at your high school, building confidence and increasing your educational and career opportunities. The State of Georgia provides 30 free college credit hours to every eligible student with the dual enrollment program.

Eligibility

To participate in dual enrollment, a student must:

- Be enrolled in and attending a participating eligible public or private high school in Georgia or an eligible participating home study program in Georgia.
- Be approved by the participating high school or home study program at which he or she is enrolled.
- Complete the Student Participation Agreement (SPA) along with their parent/guardian as part of the application process.
- Have completed the admission process and been accepted and approved by the participating college or university.

All postsecondary coursework must be completed prior to high school graduation or home study completion in order to receive dual enrollment credit and funding.

10th Graders

- Eligible students may enroll in approved Career, Technical and Agricultural Education (CTAE) courses listed on the Course Directory at a participating TCSG institution only.
- Eligible students who have a minimum SAT score of 1200 or minimum ACT composite score of 26 in a single national test administration, may enroll in any approved courses listed on the Course Directory at a TCSG, USG or private eligible participating postsecondary institution.

Note: GSFC must have the required test score(s) on file prior to the student completing the dual enrollment funding application and the high school or home study approving courses.

11th and 12th Graders

- Eligible students may take any approved dual enrollment courses listed on the Course Directory, at an eligible participating postsecondary institution (USG, TCSG or private).

For complete eligibility, application and program information, visit GAfutures.org/hope-state-aid-programs/scholarships-grants/dual-enrollment.

"My teachers said it was a good opportunity to do college course work without having to pay for it and getting exposure to college was helpful. The college courses were harder than my high school classes; but had me better prepared and gave my GPA a slight boost."

- Tommy Doan, Georgia Southern University
Zell Miller Grant Recipient,
Dual Enrollment Participant

"My mother is responsible for four children, including my twin brother and myself. I was glad that all my hard work throughout high school had paid off."

- Ariana Hatcher, The Women's College of Brenau University
Dual Enrollment Program Participant

HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR FAFSA

The first step in your search for financial aid – federal and state – is to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, or FAFSA. Submitting a FAFSA is FREE – do not pay anyone to complete the FAFSA for you!

Before you get started, make sure you have the following information:

- Your social security number
- Your driver’s license number
- Your (or your parent’s/contributor’s) tax records and W-2 forms
- Record of your (or your parent’s/contributor’s) assets
- Your (or your parent’s/contributor’s) bank statements, stocks, bonds and other investment records

If you are a dependent applicant and need to know which parent’s information to use, visit the Federal Student Aid website at studentaid.gov and search for “Who is my parent?”

1. Create an FSA ID.

Submitting your FAFSA starts with creating your FSA ID. This is your electronic passport that will allow you to electronically sign your FAFSA. Your contributor(s) will also need an FSA ID.

Take the following steps to get started:

- a. Go to FAFSA.gov and click the link to create an FSA ID.
- b. Create a username and password, and enter your email address.
- c. Enter your name, date of birth, social security number, contact information and challenge questions and answers.
- d. Review your information and read and accept the terms and conditions.
- e. Confirm your email address using the secure code, which will be sent to the email address you entered when you created your FSA ID. Once you verify your email address, you can use it instead of your username to log in to complete your FAFSA.

You can use your FSA ID to sign a FAFSA right away. Once the Social Security Administration verifies your information in one to three days, or if you have linked your PIN to your FSA ID, you will be able to use your FSA ID to access your application. Remember: Your information will be saved for next year, and you’ll need to fill out a FAFSA every school year to be eligible for federal funds.

For additional help, visit studentaid.gov/fsa-id/create-account/launch.

2. Enter personal information.

Make sure everything you enter is exactly how it appears on official government documents.

3. Enter financial information.

The IRS Data Retrieval Tool can transfer tax data to your application automatically.

4. Choose up to 20 schools.

Be sure to include any school you are planning to attend, whether or not you've applied or been accepted yet. You will get an estimate of your financial aid eligibility.

5. All FAFSA participants, including students and designated contributors, must consent before the application is processed.

6. Submit your form and double-check your information.

You'll receive a Student Aid Report (SAR) from the schools that received your information, so check it to make sure there are no mistakes. Make sure you receive a confirmation page indicating your FAFSA has been submitted. Be sure to print and maintain a copy of your confirmation page.

The FAFSA may not be the only application you have to submit in order to receive financial aid. Visit GAfutures.org to complete the Georgia Student Finance Application (GSFAPP) to apply for HOPE/Zell Miller scholarships/grants and the HOPE Career Grant. You may also need to complete other institutional applications. Be sure to contact your school(s) of interest or visit their website(s) to find out what other forms or applications are required.

COMPARE AWARD OFFERS

You've done all the hard work to get your financial aid applications submitted, and you're starting to receive award offers. Great job! But the hard work isn't finished yet. You'll need to carefully review your offers to see which is the best option for you.

How Your Financial Aid Award is Calculated

The former Expected Family Contribution (EFC) will now be replaced with the Student Aid Index (SAI) for the new FAFSA available in December of 2023

The need analysis formula is:

Cost of attendance (COA) minus Student Aid Index (SAI) and other financial assistance equals eligibility for need-based financial aid

Students and families will see a different measure of their ability to pay for college and will also experience a change in the methodology used to determine aid. The new formula removes the number of family members in college from the calculation and allows a minimum SAI of negative $1,500 to give financial aid administrators more insight when making determinations for students with especially challenging situations.

Comparing Award Offers

The award letters you receive may look slightly different, but they all basically include the same information, such as how much it will cost to attend the school for the year, the amount of financial aid the school is providing, the amount your family is expected to contribute and any additional need you'll have to fund through other sources.

GAfutures provides detailed information in your Plan&Pay4CollegeGA 12th grade letter. This letter is designed to inform you of your Projected Academic and Financial Aid Profile, based on academic and financial aid information provided to GSFC as of the date of your letter. Visit your GAfutures Dashboard for more information.

Accepting Student Financial Aid

The best offer usually involves the most free money (scholarships and grants), then earned money (work-study), then minimal borrowed money (federal student loans). As you evaluate your award package, consider the type of aid it is and if, and how, you will have to pay it back. Talk it over with your family and choose the offer that works best for you and your family's financial situation.

The Best Order to Accept Aid

- 1. Scholarships and Grants: Make sure you understand any conditions (GPA, service, etc.) that make this type of aid truly free.
- 2. Work-study: While you don't have to pay this type of aid back, you do have to work for it. Consider your class schedule and study time.
- 3. Federal Student Loans: You will have to pay this money back with interest. Consider a subsidized loan first – the interest doesn't start accruing until you leave school.
- 4. State Government or College Loans: You will have to pay this money back with interest. The terms can be different than federal student loans. Read the fine print!
- 5. Private Loans: You will have to pay this money back with interest, usually higher interest rates and less favorable terms. Read the fine print!

The Net Price Calculator

is a tool students and their families can use to estimate the cost of attendance for a particular college. Most schools have a Net Price Calculator on their website for prospective students. You can also visit GAfutures.org/resources/net-price-calculators to read more about this tool.

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau has a great online comparison tool to help you determine which offer best fits your financial needs. Check it out at ConsumerFinance.gov.

9th Grade Student Checklist

- Create a GAfutures account at GAfutures.org. GAfutures is a great resource to help you explore and plan for college and your career.
- Review your Plan&Pay4CollegeGA 9th grade letter found on your GAfutures Dashboard.
- Start thinking about what careers you may be interested in and choose your classes accordingly. Check out the Career Exploration section on GAfutures to help you determine your interests and the different types of careers out there.
- Be sure to introduce yourself to your school counselor. Make an appointment to discuss your classes and ask questions about education options after high school.
- Make sure your parents have a copy of your class schedule and list of teachers.
- Ask your counselor or teachers what Advanced Placement courses are available, whether you are eligible and how to enroll.
- Keep track of your extracurricular activities (volunteering, sports, band, etc.), awards and recognition.
- Develop good study habits. Your HOPE GPA begins calculating as soon as you set foot into high school. Create a schedule and stick to it.
- Discuss financial aid and college saving options with your parents. Consider opening a Path2College 529 Plan college savings account and contribute regularly. It's never too early or too late to save!
- Use The Federal Student Aid Estimator to help understand your options for paying for college.
- Know your graduation requirements and take challenging classes.
- Talk to your counselor about dual enrollment and your education opportunities after high school – college, military, career.
- Check your HOPE GPA through your GAfutures account beginning in 10th grade to see if you are on track to be eligible for the HOPE or Zell Miller Scholarship.*

*High schools must provide transcript data to GSFC in order for a student's HOPE GPA to be available through their GAfutures account.

10th Grade Student Checklist

- Review your Plan&Pay4CollegeGA 10th grade letter found on your GAfutures Dashboard.
- Research careers that fit your interests and match them up with college majors.
- Use the GAfutures College Search tool to start researching colleges and create a list of top choices.
- Attend PROBE College Fairs or other college prep events at your school or in your area.
- Discuss your classes and review graduation, college entrance and academic rigor requirements with your school counselor and parents.
- Check your HOPE GPA to see if you're on track to be eligible for the HOPE or Zell Miller Scholarship.
- Take time to learn about the different options for standardized tests that many colleges require for admission. Consider taking the PSAT/NMSQT to help you prepare for the real thing.
- Look into skilled trade careers and the HOPE Career Grant.
- Think about how to spend your summer: work, volunteer or take a college-level course through dual enrollment.

Visit the College Planning section of GAfutures for additional information on preparing for college.

11th Grade Student Checklist

- Review your Plan&Pay4CollegeGA 11th grade letter found on your GAfutures Dashboard.
- Meet with your school counselor to make sure you are on track to graduate and meet all necessary requirements for graduation, academic rigor and college admissions.
- Continue to research colleges and what you should look for to make sure you find a good fit. Talk to your parents about your choices, and ask them to help you clarify goals and priorities.
- Go to a PROBE College Fair. If your school has a financial aid night, be sure to attend.
- Review your family's financial situation and make sure you're planning for the cost of college appropriately. Visit the College Money Matters section and net price calculators on GAfutures.org for suggestions. The comparison tool at consumerfinance.gov is another helpful resource to compare college costs and financial aid offers.
- Take the PSAT/NMSQT to qualify for scholarships and programs associated with the National Merit Scholarship Program.
- Register for and take exams like the SAT and the ACT for college admission. Check for free test prep classes in your area.
- Start drafting essays to use for scholarships and college admissions applications.
- Search for scholarships you may be eligible for to help pay for college on GAfutures, as well as through your school counselor, community, family and friends. Ask your parents if their employer offers scholarships for the children of employees.
- Schedule campus visits or contact colleges you are interested in attending to request information about financial aid, admission requirements, applications and deadlines.
- Consider completing college-level coursework through dual enrollment.

12th Grade Student Checklist

Fall Checklist

- Review your Plan&Pay4CollegeGA 12th grade letter found on your GAfutures Dashboard.
- Sign into your student GAfutures account to review your status for the following: GSFAPP, FAFSA, ACT and/or SAT Score, Selective Service Registration and HOPE calculated GPA.
- Meet with your school counselor to make sure you're on track to fulfill all graduation, admissions and academic rigor requirements.
- If you haven't done so, take the necessary admissions tests – SAT, ACT or Accuplacer. Be sure to have your test scores sent to GSFC by the deadline of high school graduation for Zell Miller Scholarship eligibility.
- Pay attention to deadlines and apply to the colleges you have chosen.
- Ask your teachers and counselors to submit required documents (letters of recommendation) to your preferred colleges.
- Create an FSA ID for yourself and any contributors, plan on attending FSA ID creation events in the Fall and FAFSA completion events with your contributors to get help filing out the FAFSA.
- Stay involved in after-school activities and work hard all year. Your grades can still impact financial aid and scholarship eligibility.

Spring Checklist

- Complete any additional scholarship applications. In addition to submitting the FAFSA, be sure to submit the GSFAPP to qualify for state aid like the HOPE Scholarship.
- Decision time! Review your college acceptances, compare financial aid offers and plan visits to where you have been accepted.
- Review your family's financial situation and make sure you're planning for the cost of college appropriately. Visit the College Money Matters section and net price calculators on GAfutures.org for suggestions. The comparison tool at consumerfinance.gov is another helpful resource to compare college costs and financial aid offers.
- If you have questions about the aid being offered, contact that college's financial aid office.
- When you decide which college to attend, submit any required financial deposits, and confirm housing plans, freshman orientation dates and course registration. Also, notify the other colleges you were accepted to and withdraw your application.

GLOSSARY

ACT: National college admissions examination that consists of subject area tests in English, mathematics, science and reading as well as a writing test.

Admissions Counselor: College or university employee who advises students during the admissions process.

AGI (Adjusted Gross Income): Most financial aid forms require parents or students to state their taxable AGI based on income minus maximum allowable adjustments.

Alternative Loans: These private student loans from banks or other lending institutions are not federally supported nor guaranteed. Students must be enrolled to apply for these loans.

AP: Advanced Placement classes let high school students study college-level subjects for advanced placement and/or credit upon entering college.

Associate Degree: Generally awarded after 60 credit hours, usually two years of study.

ASVAB (Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery): Used by all branches of the military to determine how qualified you are to enlist, as well as your qualification for certain military jobs and your signing bonus.

Bachelor's Degree: Generally awarded after a minimum of 120 credit hours, usually four to five years of study.

Capitalized Interest: Unpaid interest added to the original amount of a loan. Capitalized interest increases the size of a loan, because the borrower is paying interest on their interest.

Certificate: (1) Given in a non-degree program, usually in a vocational or technical area to prepare for a specific occupation. Certificate programs generally last six to 12 months. (2) Given in specialized areas to people who have completed master's, doctorate or professional degrees.

COA (Cost of Attendance): Total cost of attending a college or university including tuition, room and board, books, lab fees, transportation and basic living expenses.

CSS Profile: College Scholarship Service Profile is a financial aid form many colleges and universities use to determine how much non-federal financial aid a student may be eligible for.

Community College: Sometimes called junior college, technical college or two-year college. Students can take classes and then transfer to a four-year school, or they can earn certificates, diplomas or associate degrees.

Credit Hour: Units of value given to classes. Some classes may be worth two or three credits, while others are worth four credits. Credits vary by class and by school. Many schools base tuition costs on the number of credit hours taken. Some charge a specific dollar amount per credit hour.

Diploma: Given in a non-degree program, usually a vocational or technical field, to prepare for a job. Diploma programs are generally nine to 18 months long. This diploma is not the same as the diploma you receive when you graduate from high school.

Deferment: An approved pause in repaying a student loan. For example, students may seek a deferment on undergraduate loan payments while in graduate school.

Department of Education: Government agency that administers several federal student financial aid programs.

Direct Loan Program: The U.S. Department of Education's loan program.

Doctorate: Degree that usually takes three or more years after a master's to complete.

Dual Enrollment: Program with courses that satisfy high school graduation requirements and earn college credit hours.

Early Action Admissions: If you apply to a college under the Early Action Admissions plan and receive an acceptance letter, you do not have to commit until the school's regular admissions reply date.

Early Decision Admissions: If you apply to a college under the Early Decision Admissions plan and receive an acceptance letter, you must commit at that time to attend that school.

FAA (Financial Aid Administrator): College or university employee involved in the administration of financial aid. Also known as financial aid advisors, officers or counselors.

FAF (Financial Aid Form): Generic term used for any financial aid form.

FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid): Filling out a FAFSA is the first step in the financial aid process. To be eligible to receive federal financial aid, a student must complete a FAFSA.

FDSL (Federal Direct Student Loan Program): Through this program, student loans are provided directly to the student from the federal government, rather than through commercial lenders.

Federal School Code (also, Title IV Institution Code): Each college, campus or program has a six-character institution code. You must include the code related to each of your college applications when filling out a FAFSA. These codes are available by contacting the school or checking an online listing.

FSA ID: Provides access to Federal Student Aid's online systems and can serve as your legal signature. You must have an FSA ID to complete the FAFSA.

FSEOG (Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant): Federal government program provides need-based grants to low-income college students with the most need, and is administered through the school's financial aid office.

Federal Work-Study Program: Federally funded, need-based program administered by each school. This program allows students to work on campus in exchange for a portion of their tuition.

Financial Aid Counselor: College or university employee who is involved in the administration of financial aid.

Full Time: For GSFC purposes, 12 quarter hours or 12 semester hours are considered full-time enrollment. Full-time status may vary by school.

General Educational Development (GED): Classes that can lead to a high school equivalency diploma for adults who did not earn one. Recipients must pass four tests that assess their knowledge of language arts, social studies, science and math to earn the diploma.

Grant: Money given to students for their education. Often based on need, grants may come from federal or state programs, or sometimes from private charitable organizations. A grant does not have to be repaid.

Graduate Student: Student who has earned a bachelor's degree and is working toward a master's, doctorate or professional degree.

GSFAPP (Georgia Student Finance Application): The application used to apply for HOPE/Zell Miller Scholarships/Grants and the HOPE Career Grant.

HOPE GPA: Your HOPE GPA determines if you are academically eligible for the HOPE or Zell Miller Scholarship. It includes only grades earned in core subjects – English, math, science, social studies and foreign language. You can check your HOPE GPA beginning in 10th grade through your My GAfutures account.

Independent Student: Self-supporting students not financially dependent on their parents.

Institutional Aid: Student financial aid administered by the college or proprietary trade school.

Interest: Charge for a loan, usually a percentage of the amount borrowed.

Internship/Practicum: Program that provides an opportunity to earn academic credits through a planned work experience, usually to learn about a specific career area.

IRS Data Retrieval Tool: Allows applicants who have already filed their federal income tax returns to prefill answers to some questions on their FAFSA by transferring data.

ISIR (Institutional Student Information Record): Form contains data results from the FAFSA and is submitted to schools electronically. The ISIR is made available to colleges the student selects on the FAFSA as well as servicers and state agencies that award need-based aid.

Learning Support Courses: Classes you must take and pay for to get ready for college-level work in basic subjects. These classes do not count toward your degree.

Major: Primary academic field of study in college.

Master's Degree: Degree that takes at least a year after the bachelor's to complete.

Master Promissory Note (MPN): Legally binding contract between a borrower and lender. It establishes the conditions a student or parent borrows money under and the terms the money must be repaid. The MPN is good for 10 years if the student doesn't change schools.

Merit-based: Financial aid based on academic, athletic or some other type of achievement.

Minor: Secondary academic field of study in college.

National Merit Scholarship Program: Students who do well on the PSAT/NMSQT in their junior year may qualify for National Merit Scholarships. Some students receive full scholarships.

National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Eligibility Center: Certifies the initial academic eligibility and amateur status of all college-bound student athletes who wish to compete in NCAA Division I or II athletics.

Need-based: Need-based financial aid is reserved for low-income students.

NSLDS (National Student Loan Data System): U.S. Department of Education database allows students to access their Title IV student loan and grant information.

Pell Grant: Federal program provides need-based educational grants for low-income students. Pell Grants do not have to be repaid.

PLUS: Federal loans that graduate or professional degree students and parents of dependent undergraduate students can use to help pay education expenses. The U.S. Department of Education makes Direct PLUS Loans to eligible borrowers through schools participating in the Direct Loan Program.

Promissory Note: Legal document in which the borrower promises to repay a loan and any accrued interest and fees to the lender. It also explains the terms and conditions of a loan.

Postsecondary: "After high school." Postsecondary education can be received at a college, university, community and technical college, or proprietary school.

PSAT/NMSQT (Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test): Students hoping to receive a National Merit Scholarship must take and pass this test.

ROTC (Reserve Officers Training Corps): In this program, the military pays a student's tuition or other expenses. The student takes part in summer training while in college, and commits to military service after college.

SAI: The Student Aid Index (SAI) is a replacement for Expected Family Contribution (EFC) and is a calculation of the amount of need-based financial aid a student is eligible to receive.

SAR (Student Aid Report): Summarizes the information entered on your FAFSA form and shows the amount of your Expected Family Contribution.

SAT: The SAT is a standardized test widely used for college admission in the United States. It consists of three subject areas: mathematics, critical reading and writing.

Scholarships: Funds are given to or earned by students for tuition. There are numerous public and private sources for scholarships. Some are given based on need; some on merit or skill. Others have very specific stipulations on who can receive the scholarship.

School Counselor: Someone who works in an elementary, middle or high school and provides academic, career, college access and personal/social support to K-12 students.

Study Abroad: Arrangement that allows students to complete part of their degree program through educational activities outside the United States.

Subsidized Loan: Direct Subsidized Loans are available to undergraduate students with financial need. The U.S. Department of Education pays the interest on a Direct Subsidized Loan during specified periods of time.

Transcript: Cumulative academic record that lists courses taken, grades received and credits or credit hours received.

Tuition: Amount schools charge for instruction.

Undergraduate: College student who has not yet earned a degree.

Unsubsidized Loan: Direct Unsubsidized Loans are available to both undergraduate and graduate students; there is no requirement to demonstrate need. The borrower is responsible for paying the interest on a Direct Unsubsidized Loan during all periods. Unpaid interest that accrues will be added to the principal balance of a loan.

Waiver: Arrangement under which a school does not charge specific costs if a student meets certain qualifications.

Work-study: Program allows students to defray part of their tuition and school expenses by working part-time on campus.
